Description
Set in the open countryside around Pachna, this agricultural field covers 5,686 m² of farmland in the Limassol district. The ground slopes and the plot has an irregular shape. It is reached by an existing road. The neighbouring villages of Kissousa and Malia are a short drive away, with a petrol station and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway within reach by car.

With agricultural zoning, it is a versatile piece of land for farming or planting. It is a sizeable field, set well away from dense urban development.
