Description
This field in Gourri, Cyprus, covers 12,042 m² and is made up of three adjoining parcels offered together as one unified piece of land. It sits in an open countryside setting a short drive from the village centre, with the neighbouring villages of Lazanias and Fikardou also within easy reach.

The ground is sloping and irregular in shape, following the natural lie of the land. The fields have no direct road access. Together, the three parcels form a generous single stretch of Gourri countryside.
