For Sale : € 2,400

Description
Village life sets the tone for this residential field in Agios Ioannis, a Limassol community with a strong local identity. The land sits close to the village centre and its church, with schools within walking distance, so everyday life here stays easy and close to home.

The gently sloping land measures 587 m² in total and has direct road access. Its residential zoning points naturally towards a family home, and the slope offers room for a design that works with the lie of the land.

The neighbouring villages of Agios Theodoros and Kato Mylos are a short drive away, as are supermarkets, cafés and restaurants, medical centres and pharmacies, parks and a sports venue. The main roads are a little further on, keeping the wider Limassol district within comfortable reach while the setting keeps its authentic Cypriot village character.

This sale is for a half share of the land.

A plot of residential land at the heart of Agios Ioannis, where the church, the schools and the rhythm of village life are all close at hand.
