Description
An enclosed agricultural field is on the market in Pissouri, Cyprus, set in open countryside a short drive from the village centre and the Limassol - Paphos Motorway. The neighbouring villages of Alectora and Platanisteia are also within a short drive.

The land covers 16723 m² of irregular, uneven ground. A stream runs through it and divides the field into two parts. The land is suited to agricultural use, whether for planting crops or keeping it as farmland. This sale is for a one-third share of the field. It is a versatile, enclosed piece of farmland with a stream running through it.
