Description
A hillside field of agricultural land in Alona, set in open countryside in the hills of the Nicosia district. The field covers 10,313 m², with an almost regular shape and a sloping, uneven surface.

The Alona village centre is a short drive away, as are a petrol station and the villages of Agios Theodoros and Agros, with main roads a little further on. The field has no direct road access of its own. This sale is for a one-quarter share of the field. It is a regularly shaped piece of hillside land in a landscape-led setting, away from dense urban development.
