Description
Within the Vouni community in the Limassol district, this agricultural field covers 1,673 m² of land for farming or planting. It lies a short drive from the village centre, and the neighbouring villages of Potamiou and Omodos are also a short drive away.

The ground slopes and the plot has an irregular shape. Most of the land is zoned for agriculture, while part of it falls within a protection zone. The field has no direct road access. It is a modest piece of sloping farmland in the Vouni countryside.
