For Sale : € 2,300

Description
Village life with a strong local identity, and the wider Limassol area within easy reach. This field for sale in Paramytha, Cyprus, lies close to the village centre, so cafés, community life and the everyday rhythm of authentic Cypriot village living are never far away.

The land is flat and neatly rectangular, an uncomplicated shape that is easy to understand and appreciate. It sits on residential land, where the general use of the zone is a home, in a setting that blends traditional village charm with practical convenience.

Restaurants, schools, petrol stations and a park are all a short drive away, and the green countryside around Kalochi is close by for weekend walks. Supermarkets, a medical centre and Limassol General Hospital are a drive away, while motorway junctions and main roads link the village to the rest of the district.

This sale is for a one-eighth share of the field. It offers an honest foothold in a residential setting near the heart of Paramytha, where a slower pace and a close-knit community remain part of everyday life.
