Description
This field in Palaichori Morfou covers 1580 m² of open countryside in the hills of the Nicosia district. It has a regular shape and a sloping surface, and it can be reached by road. The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Askas and Fterikoudi. A petrol station is within driving distance, and the main roads and the Astromeritis–Evrychou motorway connect the area to the wider region. The land sits within a protected rural zone, in a landscape away from dense development. It is a straightforward, well-proportioned piece of countryside land.
