Description
A small agricultural field in Pelendri, set in an open countryside setting within Limassol district. The land measures 335 m², with a triangular outline and sloping ground, and its agricultural zoning suits farming or planting.

The neighbouring villages of Amiantos and Dymes are a short drive away, as are petrol stations, while the main roads are a little further. Please note that the field has no road access of its own. This Pelendri parcel is an uncomplicated rural land purchase in farming country.
