Description
Right in the core of Potami, a traditional village in the Nicosia countryside, this residential field on the market offers 4014 m² of land with authentic Cypriot village life all around it. Its sensibly rectangular outline and sloping ground give it a natural, unpretentious character, set within the village itself rather than out on its edges.

Everyday life is easy to picture here. Schools, supermarkets, shops, cafés and restaurants are all a short drive away, as are public service offices and petrol stations. The neighbouring villages of Vyzakia and Pano Koutrafas are close by, and the Astromeritis–Evrychou motorway is within easy reach, linking the area to the rest of the district.

With residential zoning, the land is intended for a home, and its generous size leaves space for outdoor living around it. Potami keeps a slower pace and a strong local identity, while the conveniences of nearby towns are never far away.
