For Sale : € 60,000

Description
In Kapparis, just outside Paralimni, a level field of residential land lies close to the beaches of Protaras. It is a setting where the sea stays part of everyday life, and where an afternoon on the sand needs very little planning.

The land is large, at 11,849 m², with an even surface and an irregular outline. Its residential zoning gives it a clear general purpose: room for a home in a coastal corner of the Famagusta district.

Daily life is easy to picture around it. The centre of Paralimni is a short drive away, so errands and evenings out stay simple, while the shoreline remains the natural pull of the area.

The sale covers a 1/8 share of the field. An unpretentious piece of Kapparis, it keeps coastal living firmly within reach.
