For Sale : € 57,000

Description
Shops, cafés and everyday services are within walking distance, with authentic Cypriot village life all around. This residential field for sale in Astromeritis sits where convenience and community go hand in hand.

The land extends to 3,345 m² with a level surface. It is an uncomplicated canvas on residential land, where a family home could one day take shape. Supermarkets, restaurants and public service offices are close at hand, while the village centre and schools are a short drive away.

Neighbouring Peristerona and Potami are within easy reach, and a park and green space lie a drive away, adding to the relaxed rural setting. The field does not have its own road access.

What stays with you is the balance: a spacious, level piece of land rooted in a place with a strong local identity, with the comforts of daily life close by.
