For Sale : € 148,000

Description
At the centre of a peaceful, attractive village, this residential field offers room to think big about a future home. It sits among scattered houses in a quiet setting, with schools, parks and public offices within walking distance. Shops, cafés and petrol stations are a short drive away. Main roads are close by, so Nicosia life stays within easy reach while village life sets the pace.

The land is level and has direct road access. It is suitable for residential development and can be divided into plots. Neighbouring fields are also being divided into building plots, a sign of a village that is quietly growing around its centre.

For anyone drawn to authentic Cypriot village life, this field in Anageia offers a generous canvas, an uncomplicated layout and everyday amenities close at hand. This sale is for a one-third share of the land.

The pull of this field is easy to grasp: flat residential land at the very heart of the village, with the school and green spaces just a stroll away.
