Description
Here are 12,710 m² of agricultural land in Agrokipia, set in open countryside in the Nicosia District. The field is irregular in shape, with a gently sloping surface, and a small stream runs along part of one boundary. It has direct road access along a dirt road. The agricultural zoning suits farming and planting. The village centre, a petrol station and the neighbouring villages of Klirou and Malounta are a short drive away, and main roads and the motorway towards Nicosia are within easy reach by car. It is a sizeable, versatile piece of land for cultivation.
