For Sale : € 20,000

Description
On the edge of everyday life in Deryneia, this enclosed field is now on the market, a stretch of open ground within reach of the town's school and its cultural centre. It is a setting where the rhythms of a lived-in Famagusta community are never far away.

The land extends across a generous 5519 m², with an even surface that is easy to walk and appreciate. Its outline is irregular, which gives it an honest, unpretentious character, and its enclosure gives the field a clear sense of its own boundaries. The ground lies within a residential area.

For anyone with roots in the area, or simply a fondness for this corner of Cyprus, the appeal lies in owning part of a substantial, level piece of land in a familiar, close-knit setting. This sale is for a one-quarter share of the field.

Uncomplicated and grounded, it offers a real stake in the open land of Deryneia, with village amenities close at hand.
