Description
In the hill village of Pedoulas, in the Nicosia district, this agricultural field of 9,412 m² sits in natural surroundings a short drive from the village centre. The ground slopes and the plot is irregular in shape. A public road runs along one boundary, giving the land direct road access.

Zoned for agriculture, the land suits farming or planting. The neighbouring villages of Moutoullas and Prodromos are a short drive away, and the main roads are within a drive. This is a large piece of farmland in the Pedoulas countryside, to work, plant or hold.
