For Sale : € 34,000

Description
A flat, rectangular field of 4232 m² is for sale in Palaiometocho, on agricultural land in the Nicosia district. The level ground and regular shape make it straightforward to plough, plant and work, and the field has direct road access.

Main roads run right beside the land, while the Nicosia–Deneia motorway, the nearby junctions, petrol stations and the neighbouring village of Kokkinotrimithia are all a short drive away. Getting machinery, supplies and produce to and from the field is simple. This sale is for a three-quarter share of the field. It is an open, versatile piece of farmland with an easy, practical layout.
