For Sale : € 34,000

Description
Village life and city convenience meet in Palaiometocho, where this residential field for sale offers level ground and space to picture a future home. The land covers a generous 3976 m² and has an even surface. It also has direct road access, which keeps the practical side simple.

The setting is rooted in a strong local identity, yet everyday needs stay close at hand. A sports venue is within walking distance. Schools, supermarkets, cafés, pharmacies and the village centre are all a short drive away. Main roads and motorway junctions are nearby too, so the rest of Nicosia district is easy to reach. When the weekend comes, the nature spot of Lefkovounos is close by for time outdoors.

With residential zoning, the natural path here is a home of your own, surrounded by authentic Cypriot village life rather than dense urban development. This sale is for a one-third share of the land.

Open, level land, direct road access and a welcoming Palaiometocho setting give this field an honest, uncomplicated appeal.
