For Sale : € 26,000

Description
Set in open countryside within the Palaiometocho community, this agricultural field of 6614 m² lies a short drive from the village centre and neighbouring Meniko. The wider area sits away from dense urban development, and main roads and the motorway network are within a drive of the community.

The land has an irregular shape and sloping ground, and it has no direct road access. Its agricultural zoning makes it suited to farming or planting, or as a practical addition to nearby agricultural land. This is a versatile piece of farmland in the Palaiometocho countryside.
