Description
Stone and clay walls, a generous garden and a central spot in the village: this traditional house for sale in Pera carries the character of another era. Built in 1935, it stands on a plot of 746 m², with space outdoors to plant, gather and enjoy the open air.

Across two storeys, around 210 m² of interior space holds three bedrooms, offering plenty of room to shape around family life. The house needs extensive restoration. Behind its old walls lies the chance to bring a characterful home back to life, keeping its traditional design while making it your own. The land has direct road access.

Daily life here keeps a slower pace and a close-knit community feel. Schools, supermarkets, cafés and restaurants are a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Politiko and Episkopeio. The green shores of Tamasos Lake are close by for weekend walks, and main roads are a drive away. Life in Pera offers authentic Cypriot village surroundings. At its centre stands a stone house with a generous garden, ready to become a home to put down roots in.
