Description
This is a Cyprus field in Kapedes, a village in the Nicosia district, set in open countryside away from dense urban development. The land covers 26,088 m² of agricultural ground. It is irregular in shape and slopes across its surface, giving a generous area for farming or planting. The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Kampia and Analiontas.

The field is landlocked and has no direct road access. It is a sizeable, uncomplicated piece of agricultural land in a rural part of the district.
