Description
A field of 6021 m² in Pano Pyrgos, set in open countryside outside the village centre in the Nicosia district. This is agricultural land with a regular, well-proportioned shape, which makes the ground straightforward to measure, mark out and manage.

The surface slopes across the field, and the land is reached by an access road a short way from the nearest public road. The church of Prophitis Elias and the village of Pano Pyrgos are both within easy reach. A sizeable, regularly shaped piece of agricultural land in the Pano Pyrgos countryside.
