Description
Set in open countryside in the Nicosia district, this agricultural field in Analiontas covers 4,683 m². The ground is irregular in shape with a gentle incline, and its agricultural zoning suits planting or farming.

The field lies in the farmland around Analiontas. The village centre, the neighbouring villages of Margi and Pera, and local petrol stations are all a short drive away, while the Nicosia–Limassol motorway and the Lefkosia South Orbital Motorway are within a drive. The land has no direct road access of its own. It is a versatile piece of agricultural land in a rural landscape away from dense development.
