For Sale : € 6,000

Description
Set in open countryside within the Peristerona community, this agricultural field for sale covers 6689 m² of even ground. Its level surface suits planting and general farming, and its irregular outline sits away from dense development, with the villages of Orounta and Akaki a short drive away.

The field is landlocked and has no direct road access. This sale is for a one-third share of the land. It is a versatile stretch of even, open farmland in the Nicosia countryside.
