Description
In the village of Ora, this agricultural field of 1338 m² sits in an open countryside setting, away from dense urban development. It is a piece of the Cypriot countryside in the Larnaca district. The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Lageia and Vavatsinia.

Main roads and a petrol station are a drive away, and the Nicosia–Limassol motorway links the area with the rest of the island. The field is offered together with a group of other properties rather than on its own. It is a simple rural field within the Ora village area.
