For Sale : € 130,000

Description
Village life in Agros sets the tone for this residential plot on the market in Agros, Cyprus. It offers 1612 m² of smooth, regularly shaped land on which to plan a home of your own. The land has direct road access, and one side borders a green space, which gives the site an open, natural edge.

With residential zoning, this is a canvas for a bespoke home, giving you control over layout, materials and specification from the very start. A private road has been built through the middle of the land, dividing it into two sections.

Everyday needs are a short drive away: the village centre, supermarkets and shops, restaurants and cafés, pharmacies and medical centres, as well as parks and a sports venue. Neighbouring villages such as Agios Ioannis are close by, and main roads are a drive away. Paphos International Airport is about 50 km away, which keeps the rest of the island and trips abroad within comfortable reach.

Here, authentic Cypriot village life and a home designed around your own brief come together on a generous plot with green space right alongside.
