For Sale : € 45,000

Description
Authentic Cypriot village life sets the tone for this residential field listed in Psevdas, a Larnaca community where the village centre, schools, cafés and green spaces are all just a short drive away. Neighbouring Pyrga and Agia Anna add to the rural character, while the Larnaca–Nicosia motorway keeps the island's two main cities within easy reach.

The land is generous in scale and level underfoot, with direct road access that makes it practical to reach. Its residential zoning points to its general use as a home setting, in surroundings shaped by landscape rather than dense urban development. A building stands within the wider land, though it is not part of this sale.

Everyday needs are well covered. Supermarkets and shops are a drive away, and Larnaca International Airport is about 15 km from the village. This sale is for a share of the field, not the whole.

What stays with you is the balance Psevdas offers: a slower pace and a close-knit community, with the coast and the cities never far away.
