Description
Set in an open countryside setting, this field in Drouseia covers 8339 m² of agricultural land in the Paphos district. It is recorded as a livestock field, which suits grazing and farming use.

The land has a regular shape and a sloping surface. It also has direct road access, so bringing in vehicles and equipment is straightforward. The villages of Androlikou, Goudi and Chrysochou are a short drive away, as are the main roads and petrol stations.

This is a well-proportioned, versatile piece of Drouseia farmland with a practical layout and its own road frontage.
