Description
Authentic Cypriot village life sets the tone for this field on the market in Dierona, Cyprus, a small community in the Limassol countryside where neighbouring villages and green open spaces are never far away. The setting is shaped by landscape rather than dense development, giving a real sense of the island away from the resorts.

The land extends to 335 m² and is zoned for residential use, so a home is its natural purpose. It is a compact, uncomplicated piece of ground in a village with genuine local identity.

Daily life stays simple. Arakapas and Prastio Kellakiou are a short drive away, as are restaurants, cafés, parks and the main roads. A supermarket, a school and sports facilities are a drive away. The Nicosia–Limassol motorway brings the city and the coast within reach. The historic Church of the Transfiguration of the Saviour is also nearby, adding to the area's character.

This field is offered as part of a larger group of properties rather than on its own. What remains is Dierona itself: residential land rooted in the authentic side of Cyprus.
