Description
Set among the villages of the Limassol hinterland, this field for sale in Dierona offers a foothold in authentic Cypriot village life. Neighbouring Arakapas and Prastio Kellakiou are a short drive away, as are parks, green spaces, restaurants and cafés, so everyday pleasures stay close at hand.

At 502 m², it is a compact, uncomplicated piece of land. It sits within a residential zone, giving it a clear general use as the setting for a home in a landscape-led setting away from dense urban development.

Practical needs are covered too. Main roads are a short drive away, while a supermarket, a school and a sports venue are within a reasonable drive. The Nicosia - Limassol Motorway and its junctions are within driving distance, keeping the coast and the city within comfortable reach. The historic Transfiguration of the Saviour Church nearby adds a touch of local heritage to the surroundings.

This land is offered together with other properties as a group, rather than on its own. What it offers in return is simple and lasting: a residential setting in Dierona, rooted in a place with a strong local identity and a slower, close-knit way of life.
