Description
Three adjoining agricultural fields in Silikou, in the Limassol district, are offered together as one field holding. The land has an irregular shape and a sloping surface, and it sits in an open countryside setting. The setting is landscape-led and away from dense urban development. The fields have direct road access. The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Kilani and Koilani and local petrol stations. Main roads are a drive away, and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway lies in the wider region. Zoned for agricultural use, this is a versatile piece of land for farming or planting.
