Description
This agricultural field in Theletra, Cyprus, covers 1041 m² of Paphos countryside. It is a simple parcel of farmland, suited to farming or planting. The land sits in an open countryside setting, away from dense urban development.

The village centre and Old Theletra are a short drive away, as is the neighbouring village of Kathikas, and petrol stations are close at hand. The main roads and the Limassol to Paphos motorway, with its junctions, are within a drive and link the area with the rest of the district. This is a versatile piece of agricultural land in the Theletra countryside.
