Description
In the open countryside of Choletria, Paphos, this field covers 31,104 m² of agricultural land not far from Asprokremmos Reservoir. The ground slopes and is irregular in shape, and the field has direct road access along one side.

The village centre, the neighbouring villages of Foinikas and Old Choletria, and petrol stations are all a short drive away. The Limassol - Paphos Motorway and other main roads are also within a drive. The land is zoned for agricultural use, so this Choletria field is suited to farming or planting. It is a sizeable, versatile piece of farmland with its own road access.
