Description
Life in Palaichori Oreinis moves at a gentler pace. This compact residential field sits within easy reach of the village centre, where you will find cafés, restaurants and the traditional character that draws people back to the hills of Cyprus. It offers authentic village life with everyday comforts close at hand.

With 300 m² of residential land, this is an uncomplicated starting point for a home of your own in a setting with a strong local identity. Medical centres, pharmacies, parks and public offices are all a short drive away. Schools, a supermarket, a petrol station and a sports venue are a little further, and the main road connects you to the wider region.

The neighbouring villages of Askas and Palaichori Morfou are close by, making it easy to explore this part of the mountains. Just a short drive away stands the Transfiguration of the Saviour Church, one of the area's treasured heritage sites, a reminder of how deep the roots of this landscape run.

A modest plot in a village of real heritage, with room to build the home you have in mind.
