Description
Set in open countryside a short drive from Pachna village, this agricultural field in Cyprus covers 17392 m² of sloping ground. Its regular shape makes it straightforward to plan for planting or cultivation. A road runs through the land, giving access and dividing it into two parts.

The neighbouring villages of Agios Amvrosios and Pano Kivides are also close by, with a petrol station a short drive away and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway within easy reach by car. It is a well-proportioned piece of agricultural land in the Pachna countryside.
