Description
This field sits on higher ground in Agros, in open countryside a short drive from the village centre. It covers 3178 m² of sloping ground, irregular in shape, that follows the natural lie of the land. The neighbouring villages of Agios Theodoros and Alona are also a short drive away, and petrol stations are within walking distance. Main roads, including the Limassol – Saittas motorway, can be reached in the wider region. The field does not have its own direct road access. It is a straightforward piece of countryside land, with 3178 m² of sloping ground in the Agros landscape.
