Description
Business life in the heart of Nicosia happens right on your doorstep here. This office for sale in Agioi Omologites sits in a central, well-connected quarter. Public service offices, restaurants and cafés are right beside the building, and main roads are close at hand.

Inside, 85 m² gives you an adaptable workspace for a team, for consultations or for administrative work. Air conditioning keeps the summers comfortable. The office sits within a seven-storey building of eleven offices and comes with its own covered parking space in the basement, a real everyday advantage in the city centre.

Supermarkets, shops, medical centres and pharmacies are all within walking distance, so errands fit easily around the working day. Strovolos, bus stations and motorway junctions are a short drive away, which makes the office easy to reach for clients and staff.

Few addresses make the working day this simple. Agioi Omologites offers a central location, practical space and parking of your own, right where the city comes to life.
