Description
Village life is close at hand in Agia Marina Xyliatou. From this residential field, the village centre is within walking distance, so the heart of the community is a stroll away rather than a drive.

The field covers 3,679 m² of residential land, a sizeable stretch with room for a home in a village setting. Picture plans taking shape on generous ground, with the familiar rhythm of the village just down the way.

When the weekend calls for open air, Xyliatos Reservoir is a short drive away, bringing the water and the surrounding nature within easy reach. It is a setting where village days and time outdoors sit comfortably side by side.

The sale is a 1/5 share of the field.

A sizeable piece of land with the village centre on foot and the reservoir nearby, waiting for the home you have in mind.
