Description
An agricultural field for sale in Kampia, set in open countryside in the Nicosia district, away from dense urban development. The whole field measures 13044 m², on sloping ground of irregular shape. The land is suited to both farming and livestock, which leaves flexible options for cultivation or keeping animals. The villages of Politiko and Kapedes are a short drive away, and the Nicosia to Limassol motorway is within easy reach by car. This sale is for a one-quarter share of the field. It is a versatile piece of agricultural land in a quiet rural part of Nicosia.
