For Sale : € 163,000

Description
Close to the Larnaca coast, the village of Perivolia offers a setting where the sea and everyday village life are never far apart. Faros Beach is a short drive away, and so is the village centre, with its cafés, shops and familiar rhythm. Larnaca International Airport is also a short drive away, so the wider world stays within easy reach.

This large residential field is flat and irregular in shape, and spreads across two parcels. It fronts a public road on two sides, which gives it direct road access. Its residential zoning points to the plain, natural use of the land as a place for a home in a village setting.

Picture a morning swim at Faros Beach, then a short drive back to the village to a piece of land with a coastal neighbourhood all around it. The sale covers a 12/60 share in one parcel and a 4/60 share in the other.

Level land, road frontage and the beach a short drive away make this field in Perivolia well worth a visit.
