For Sale : € 215,000

Description
A detached home with everything on one level, set on a generous 827 m² plot. This residential house for sale in Pano Deftera offers the kind of space and independence that apartment living rarely allows. Built in 2005, it stands within its own fenced garden and has direct road access.

Inside, 128 m² of living space offers comfortable room proportions. Air conditioning keeps the summer months easy. Outside, 25 m² of covered verandas sit alongside uncovered ones, giving you shade for long lunches and open air for evenings in the garden.

The village setting is practical as well as pleasant. Supermarkets, shops and main roads are within walking distance. Schools, cafés, restaurants, parks and the village centre are a short drive away, and neighbouring Anageia is close at hand too.

Above all, this is a home that combines internal space with useful outdoor areas. It gives you room to breathe, a garden to enjoy and your own front door in a well-connected village.
