Description
Agricultural land in Astromeritis: a 6355 m² field in an open countryside setting in the Nicosia district. The ground is smooth and slopes only slightly, an easy surface for farming or planting in line with its agricultural use.

The village centre of Astromeritis is a short drive away, and the neighbouring villages of Potami and Peristerona are also close by. The field has no direct road access. It is a versatile piece of farmland with a generous area and an even, gently sloping surface.
