For Sale : € 4,000

Description
This agricultural field in Deryneia, in the Famagusta district of Cyprus, sits in an open countryside setting. The land covers 6113 m² of slightly sloping ground and has direct road access along a dirt road, so it is straightforward to reach for farming or planting.

Zoned for agricultural use, it suits cultivation and could make a practical addition to an existing agricultural property. Its surroundings keep it away from dense urban development, in the farmland around Deryneia. This sale is for a one-third share of the field. It is a simple, workable piece of farmland with its own road access.
