For Sale : € 27,000

Description
A short stroll from the heart of Kokkinotrimithia, this flat corner field sits within the everyday rhythm of village life. The village centre and its shops are within walking distance, so daily errands can be a pleasant walk rather than a drive.

Zoned for residential use, the land offers room for a home in an established village setting. Its level surface and corner position give it an open, uncomplicated feel. A long frontage on a public road provides direct road access. The irregular shape calls for a considered layout rather than a standard one.

Picture mornings that start with a walk to the village for fresh bread and coffee, then a return to your own corner of Kokkinotrimithia. It is a setting where the pace of the village and the convenience of its centre sit comfortably side by side.

The sale is for a 1/3 share of the field.

A level, well-placed corner of village life, with the heart of Kokkinotrimithia just a walk away.
