For Sale : € 54,000

Description
With its feet firmly in Galata, this sloping field on rising ground offers 6689 m² of agricultural land on the edge of the village, close to its centre and its residential neighbourhood. It has direct road access, and a stream runs along part of its boundary. The land is irregular in shape and inclined, and it is suited to planting or other farming use.

Kakopetria and Sinaoros are a short drive away, as are petrol stations and the main roads, including the route up to Troodos. The setting is open countryside in a well-known Troodos village. This is a generous, versatile piece of farmland with its own road access and a stream along its edge.
