Description
Authentic Cypriot village life starts right at the edge of this residential field in Agios Theodoros Soleas, within walking distance of the community centre and the village church. It is a setting with a strong local identity, where a home of your own could become part of everyday village life rather than sit apart from it.

The land offers a generous 2169 m² on residential land, giving real room to plan a house and outdoor space around it. The surface slopes and faces north, and the plot enjoys direct road access.

Life beyond the plot is easy to enjoy. Neighbouring Evrychou and Korakou are a short drive away, as are cafés, restaurants, parks, petrol stations, a bus station and the main roads. A school, public offices and a sports venue lie a little further afield. For weekends, the Solea Reservoir invites walks by the water, while the Cyprus Train Museum and the painted church of Panagia tis Asinou bring the history of the area close to home.

A flexible plot with the village centre on foot and the countryside of the Solea valley all around, offering an authentic alternative to city living.
