For Sale : € 110,000

Description
Set on a hill in a growing suburban area of Agioi Konstantinos and Eleni, Dali, this residential plot enjoys an uninterrupted view of the surrounding area. It is the kind of setting that lets you plan a home around the outlook from the very first sketch.

The land is level and regular in shape, offering 710 m² with control over layout, materials and specification. It suits contemporary or traditional designs alike, making it a natural canvas for a bespoke family residence. The plot forms part of a new residential subdivision, where infrastructure works are at an early stage.

Daily life is well served. Supermarkets, shops, cafés, petrol stations, a park and a sports venue are all a short drive away, with Latsia close by. The motorway network sits within easy reach, so the rest of Nicosia and the road to Limassol feel close. For a change of pace, the heritage site of Agios Sozomenos is a pleasant drive away.

A developing neighbourhood, good connections and a raised position with open views come together here. It is the groundwork for a home designed entirely on your own terms.
