Description
A level, almost regular field of 2,007 m² in the open countryside of Deryneia, in the Famagusta district. This Deryneia field sits in a rural setting away from dense urban development, surrounded by open land.

The ground is flat and the shape is simple and tidy, so the boundaries are clear and easy to read on site. The land has direct road access via a dirt road, so reaching it is uncomplicated. It is a straightforward piece of open countryside: flat, well proportioned and reachable by road.
