Description
A sloping agricultural field of 5352 m² near Kakopetria, this is a versatile piece of land for farming or planting. Its irregular shape follows the natural fall of the ground, and a stream runs along one of its boundaries. The field is reached by a pathway and lies a short drive from the Kakopetria village centre. Galata, petrol stations and the main roads are also close by. An uncomplicated rural land purchase in an open countryside setting, this is a generous field with a stream running along its edge.
