Description
Everyday life comes easily from this two-bedroom Cyprus apartment in Kaimakli, Nicosia, where schools, supermarkets, shops, parks and public service offices are all within walking distance. Errands, the school run and an evening stroll can all happen without reaching for the car keys.

On the first floor of a residential block, the apartment offers 73 m² of comfortable everyday spaces, with two bedrooms and covered verandas for a morning coffee in the open air. It is an uncomplicated home that is easy to run and easy to enjoy, with room to settle in and make it your own.

Beyond the immediate neighbourhood, restaurants and cafés, medical centres and pharmacies are a short drive away. Main roads and bus stations bring the rest of the city within easy reach. The apartment works equally well as a home of your own or as a place to let.

Above all, it offers convenient city living in a Kaimakli neighbourhood where the essentials of daily life are never far from the front door.
